Cultural diversity

During the odd and even semesters, several events such as a fresher party, Anubhav, Robomania, and hostel night are held. These events provide as a venue for new aspirants to showcase their hidden ability, with the goal of making each new student feel connected. Every year, Robomania, an inter-institute technical and cultural festival, is held to provide a platform for all students. It also seeks to demonstrate how creativity, talents, and innovations are all incorporated. The final performance of the day, known as star night, is usually reserved for a well-known and invited celebrity. Students can effectively mix and establish a peaceful environment through such cultural programmes..

Regional, communal and linguistic diversities

Students not just to celebrate popular local festivals include Lohri, Holi, and Deepawali, but also celebrations like Christmas Day, Teej, Ramzan, and others, fostering cultural peace. The campus's linguistic diversity is shown in the celebration of different countries' national days. Our institutes' overseas students round out the picture of diversity. We at Gulzar celebrate each country's national day on campus to make the celebration inclusive and to transmit our message of harmony, brotherhood, and unity in diversity, we invite students of all nationalities and religious backgrounds to participate in such cultural activities.
